Why do good speaking skills matter?

- A speech that ignited a generation.
- A speech that roused a country.
- Unfortunately the kind of bad speaking you've too often heard!

Knowing your audience

- Why your audience is there.
- Background of your audience. Experts or general?
- What you want to convey to your audience.

An exercise: Evaluating a talk

- A sample talk will be given.
- You will evaluate the talk in terms of:
 - Presenter manner.
 - Structure of talk.
 - Style and content of slides.
 - Vocal delivery.
 - Overall effectiveness.

A final word: The power of good speaking skills

- The speech that made a President.
